FESTIVAL OF SHARING QUILT SHOW NEWS...YOU NEED TO KNOW

FESTIVAL QUILTERS

Before we know it the Festival of Sharing will be here. But, before we get to the Festival in Sedalia on October 18, many stitches will be taken by hand or machine to make the many beautiful quilts that will be auctioned in one of two ways:

- ◆ Silent Auction - We tried this last year, it worked very well that we have decided to do it again this year with an adjusted set up so bidding and viewing the quilts is much better.
- ◆ Audible Auction – with our favorite auctioneers and quilt holders will begin at 12:30 pm.

I know that you who are quilters are working on a Festival Quilt – I know that I am. My quilt this year will be pieced and hand applique. This quilt is being made by my friend Linda Neiwig and I, she appliques and I piece. Once the quilt is finished we will be mailing it to A NEW ADDRESS...

Work of Our Hands Booth

Do you enjoy or make crafts and art work? Then we have the job for you! The Work of Our Hands booth is needing three teams of 3-4 people each to work in two hour shifts to help sell items that are donated to the booth. No special experience needed - just a smile and the ability to put an item in a bag and make change. The money made at this booth goes toward the Where Needed Most fund.

Craft and art work is welcome! Bring to the booth as early as possible on Saturday or on Friday when the booth is being set up. Everything is welcome although less expensive items sell better. Thank you for your donations!

If you are interested in donating but can't be at the Festival, or would like to help out at the booth on the day of the Festival, please contact Elaine at elaineauch@charter.net.

"On the Road" Quilt Shows

Bring friends and neighbors to see a sampling of the quilts that will be auctioned at the Festival of Sharing October 18. Silent bids will be accepted at each of the "On the Road" Quilt Shows.
